

Judy Bradford – Human Resources Specialist

The primary responsibility of the HR Specialist is to administer all personnel policies and procedures, advise the Commission and department heads on personnel matters, assist employees with personnel related issues, develop recruitment guidelines, maintain personnel records for governmental reporting purposes and any other personnel related duties assigned by the Commission.

Judy received her Bachelors Degree in Business Administration from St. Bernard College and has worked for over 35 years in the field of Human Resources. She is currently pursuing certification as Human Resources Professional with the Alabama Association of Public Personnel Administrators (AAPPA) through Auburn University.